Children's Meetups

Hello ISPPU! Another semester is about to start and so will another year of Children's Meetups!

Children's Meetups are an informal, drop-in gathering for parents and caregivers to socialize and share advice or ask questions about life in Princeton and/or raising children while the children play. Expectant mothers or those thinking about having children (or additional children) are also welcome!

Looking for Volunteers

Dear ISPPU member, this association exists thanks to the wonderful participation of everyone. We are always looking for new event coordinators to join the team.

Recently some of our event coordinators have gone back to their countries, and some of the weekly/monthly activities are on hiatus.

If you are interested and willing to participate, we have many activities that you can take part in. The weekly/monthly events for which we are currently looking for event coordinators for the following events:

Lunch & Chat We are looking for an event coordinator that can plan this monthly meeting. In this meeting we usually have lunch together while chatting about adjusting to life in the US and sharing our experiences. Space is usually provided by Davis IC.
